FURTHER EDUCATION

Founded by Zandra Rhodes in 2003, the Fashion and Textile Museum is now part of Newham College. Together the Museum and College work to provide career opportunities in fashion and tailoring for a broad cross section of learners and to help meet skills shortages in the industry.

CENTRE FOR EXCELLENCE IN FASHION AND TAILORING

Launched in 2016, Newham College's Centre of Excellence in Fashion and Tailoring acts as a hub for all learners, offering courses with established progression routes to study at Higher Education level and to employment and apprenticeships. The Centre takes forward the College's work with Savile Row. To find out more visit: www.newham.ac.uk/fashionexcellence

THE LONDON FASHION FOUNDATION DIPLOMA

Full-time one year course
 September 2016–July 2017
 If you are creative, ambitious and keen to work in fashion, The London Fashion Foundation Diploma course will develop your skills and abilities towards a successful career in the industry.

MUSEUM SUMMER SCHOOL 2017

Part 1 Drawing: 25–28 July
 Part 2 Digital: 1–4 August
 10:30am–4:30pm
 £220 / £400 both parts

These four-day courses take inspiration from the current exhibition to develop your creative ideas into a finished collection of designs. Part 1 focuses on drawing and designing by hand and Part 2 introduces digital skills for fashion and textiles. Aimed at secondary students and adults alike.

HOW TO BOOK

Numbers are limited for all Museum courses, workshops, talks and events so please book early to avoid disappointment. Exhibition entry is included in the prices for all activities.
